

1. Gloss measurement of translucent plastic films

The gloss level of semi-transparent plastic films should be inline measured. For this purpose a gloss measurement sensor type RLS-GD-15/60° will be used. At this, the distance of the gloss measurement sensor to the plastic film surface is approximately 15mm. The degree of gloss of the two different products can be proper measured as shown in the screen shots.

